

Paseo de las Iglesias Santa Cruz River Ecosystem Restoration Feasibility Study

Jennifer Becker, CFM

&

Thomas Helfrich, Project Manager

of

Pima County Flood Control District, Water Resources Division

In partnership with the US Army Corps of Engineers
(USACE)

SOME STAKEHOLDERS AND PARTICIPANTS

◆ Pima County

- Department of Transportation
- Cultural Resources
- Natural Resources, Parks and Recreation
- Real Property

◆ City of Tucson

- Rio Nuevo
- Tucson Origins Cultural Park
- Economic Development
- Parks and Recreation
- Transportation Engineering
- Comprehensive Planning

◆ State and federal agencies

- ◆ Pima Association of Governments
- ◆ San Xavier Nation, Tohono O'odham Nation
- ◆ Local environmental organizations
- ◆ Local and national consulting companies
- ◆ University of Arizona
- ◆ Pima Community College
- ◆ Local neighborhood groups
- ◆ Citizens

Today's Presentation

- Study Area
- Problem Summary
- Public Involvement
- Project Objectives
- Study Considerations
- Project Alternatives
- Recommended Plan
- Proposed Schedule
- Documents and Contacts

Study Area

- 7.5 River Miles
- 5,005 Acres
- 6 Bridge Crossings
- Existing Soil Cement
- Cultural Resources
- Landfills
- Sand & Gravel Mining
- City Planning Area

Problem Summary

- Historic condition:
 - The Santa Cruz River was a flowing stream lined with cottonwood, willow, and mesquite forests.

1904 Photo at Base of "A" Mountain

